

FOLD White wall lamp with LED reader

Ref. 64304

Collection of indoor wall lamps. Nutcreatives has created FOLD, a series of modern design comprising a rectangular structure and a fabric shade. The structure has a piece in the upper part that juts out towards the diffusor. This white wall lamp has a switch incorporated into the base to facilitate its use. Thanks to its LED reader, it complements the function of environmental light with that of reading.
