

CADAQUÉS Beige floor lamp

Ref. 71242

CADAQUÉS is an outdoor lamp designed by Faro Lab. Its structure is reminiscent of a triangle and the warm light beam is projected right from the middle of the two shades. It is manufactured in aluminium and in textile, a high-quality material that is very resistant to changes in temperature and is also used to make beach loungers. It has an accessory to attach the light to the floor and one to extend the length of the cable. Also in blue finish.
