STAY BRIGHT

A slightly smaller KAISER idell™ pendant in four, new high-gloss colours

The KAISER idell™ lamp first premiered in 1931. Today, it is recognized around the world as an icon of Bauhaus design, illustrating the movement's genius for creating versatile, minimalist designs that still seem modern today.

The 6722-P is a small pendant with a soft light that works well alone or in a line above dining tables or kitchen islands, etc.

The pendant is available in Soft Ochre, Russet Red, Smooth Slate and Black (high-gloss).

DESIGNER

Christian Dell (1893-1974) led the metal workshop at Bauhaus from 1922-1925 and developed a highly innovative and pioneering style of design that changed modern lighting forever.
